These rules help me to stay safe on the Internet
in Key Stage One

I talk to the teacher before using anything on the internet

I tell the teacher if anything makes me feel scared or uncomfortable on the internet

I always keep my password a secret

I only open pages which my teacher has said are OK

I only work with people I know in real life

I do not give my mobile phone number to anyone who is not a friend in real life

I do not tell people about myself online (I will not tell them my name, anything about my home and family and pets)

I do not upload photographs of myself without asking a teacher

I can search the Internet with an adult.

I never agree to meet a stranger

I only email people I know or if my teacher agrees

I only use my school email

I make sure all messages I send are polite

I show the teacher if we get a nasty message

I do not reply to any nasty message or anything which makes me feel uncomfortable

I am aware of the CEOP report button and know when to use it.

I know that anything I share online may be monitored.

These rules help me to stay safe on the Internet in Key Stage Two

I ask permission before using the Internet.

I only use Websites that the teacher has chosen.

I tell the teacher if I see anything I am uncomfortable with.

I immediately close any Webpage I am not sure about.

I only email people I know or approved by my school

I only use email which has been provided by school

I send e-mails that are polite and friendly.

I only use, move and share personal data securely

I always keep my passwords and personal details private.
(my name, family information, journey to school, my pets and hobbies are all examples of personal details)

I never meet an online friend without taking a responsible adult that I know with me

I do not open e-mails sent by anyone I do not know

I do not reply to any nasty message or anything which makes me feel uncomfortable

I do not use Internet chat rooms.

I hand my mobile telephone in to the school office before school starts in the mornings.

I only give my mobile phone number to friends I know in real life and trust

I respect the school network security

I understand that if I break any of these rules then disciplinary action will be taken by our class teacher

I am aware of the CEOP report button and know when to use it.

I know that anything I share online may be monitored.

I know that once I share anything online it is completely out of my control and may be used by others in a way that I did not intend.
